

Alumni Art Market Application Form 2017

Application deadline: August 17, 2017 at 4:00pm

Overview

The Alumni Art Market at ECUAD is an annual initiative from the Emily Carr University Alumni Association. This year, it will return as part of THE BIG REVEAL of our new campus on Great Northern Way. It will take place from October 26 - 28. We are currently accepting applications for prospective participants. In order to qualify, all work must be original and the artist must be in attendance to sell their items. Please note only graduates from credit programs at Emily Carr University of Art + Design or Vancouver School of Decorative and Applied Arts are eligible to participate.

Application

Complete the application form with your artist biography, a Declaration of Authenticity, a list of all the types of items you will be selling with descriptions, and price point of your work.

In addition to completing the application form, please submit a minimum of 3 photos (max. 8) that best represent the items you will be selling at the event. Please note if accepted, photos submitted may be used for promotional purposes. Your application will be based on these images and not your website(s) / blog / online shop. Do not include Instagram/filtered images. Please email the complete application form and photos of your work to alumni@ecuad.ca by August 17, 2017 at 4pm.

The participation fee is $300 upon acceptance into the Alumni Art Market.
