

Emily Carr University of Art + Design and Vancouver Community College CREATIVE ART PATHWAY Program

Emily Carr University of Art + Design (ECUAD) and Vancouver Community College (VCC) are pleased to announce the Creative Art Pathway (CAP) program for potential Emily Carr Students who have conditional acceptance to ECUAD, but do not meet the English language proficiency requirements for admission. Students admitted to this program will attend both campuses and be co-registered at ECUAD and VCC. This program will provide English proficiency upgrading at VCC and also allow students to take Emily Carr studio courses -- providing a sense of community and connection to ECUAD.

The Creative Art Pathway stream consists of three components:

1. English for Creative Practice – a customized, non-credit course taken at VCC for ECUAD students exclusively that focuses on the development of the core oral and written communication skills needed for success at ECUAD.
2. English for Academic Purposes (EAP) – Students will be required to successfully complete 1 to 4 courses in English for Academic Purposes at VCC (depending on the IELTS score of the student).
3. ECUAD Studio Course – first year, 6.0 credit Core Studio Course.

Eligibility:

Candidates who meet Emily Carr's visual art portfolio and academic admissions requirements but do not meet the minimum IELTS score and whose IELTS score is not lower than 5.5 in any skill area, will receive a conditional offer of admission from ECUAD to attend the CAP program.

Dates:

The CAP program will be offered in the Fall (September to December) and Spring (January to April) semesters in conjunction with the ECUAD and VCC academic schedules. Students may be required to take one or two semesters depending on their skill level and academic progression through the program.
